CHIEF JUSTICE OF THE UNITED STATES
DISTRICT COURT FOR MASSACHUSETTS
JOHN JOSEPH MOAKLET U. S. COURTHOUSE

In Re: James Peter Kyricopoulos, petitioner

v.

Erin Gaffney, respondent

Dear Chief Justice;

I am forwarding this to your "honorable" attention re: the above habeas corpus dated Sept. 12, 2017, kindly see copy of cover letter where clear inference can be drawn. As of today I have not received one ounce of communication re: the filing of the new habeas corpus, my girlfriend confirmed that the money order was processed, that is nice, but no docket number, etc.

Sadly as everyone knows in the First Circuit and this Court the petitioner is falsely imprisoned because of egregious misconduct by the Attorney General and State Supreme Court of Massachusetts.

A reasonable person would conclude that both these Courts are "morally bankrupt," but again this is 2017, politics dominates the United States Constitution.

Your immediate attention to this most compelling matter of long overdue justice would be deeply apprecoiated as the petitioner approaches his 68th birthday. As my 92 year old mother tells everyone, hell will freeze over before this state and federal government agents will "break" my son.

I await your intervention , and of course your time is deeply appreciated.

Sincerely,

James Peter Kyricopoulos,

Habeas Corpus

Dear Sir/Madam;

Please find enclosed upon receiving a Order from the United States Court of Appeals dated September 6, 2017, that I do not need leave to file another habeas corpus, the following to be filed, processed and docketed forthwith:

1. Petitioner, James peter Kyricopoulos' Habeas Corpus Pursuant to 28, U.S.C.2254, (original plus 2 additional sets; and
2. A money order in the amount of $5.00, which is the required filing fee.

Thank you for your time.

Sincerely,

James Peter Kyricopoulos,
petitioner, pro-se
